SECOND QUARTER 1979 ALUMNI NEWS / BRYAN COLLEGE / DAYTON, TENNESSEE

1979 GRADS SHARE COMPLETION OF 49TH YEAR

LESSONS FROM THE PAST; COMMITMENT FOR THE FUTURE

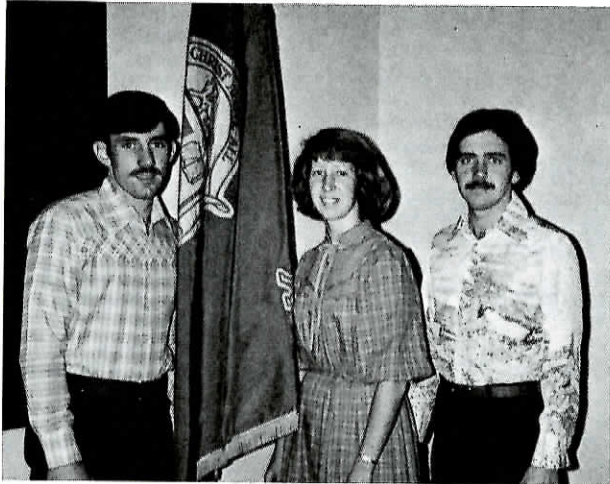

by David W. Drake

"Dave, your years at college will be the best of your life" is something I have heard throughout all of my days at Bryan, and to that statement I say a hearty "yes" and a confident "no." "Yes" because at this point in my life my years at Bryan have been the best to date, and "no" because I'm confident that the Lord has used my days here to prepare me for a future life of serving Him; a life which, if I will only yield to His directing, will never cease to grow more exciting and fulfilling as I daily learn more of God and seek to do His will.

But what of these days that are now drawing to a close? What have the years at Bryan meant to me? These questions are difficult to respond to in such short space, but I think they can be adequately answered by looking at three particular areas of growth in my life while attending Bryan.

The first and most obvious area for any college setting is that of learning. Learning, however, is more than just academic pursuits. Indeed, one of the greatest lessons the Lord has taught me in my Bryan experience has been in the realm of dealing with people. As anyone who has been thrust into a dormitory situation directly out of high school can attest, the first challenge of a college career is quite often found in the adjustments that must be made in both thinking and behaviour as one strives to learn responsibility in his new and deeper relationships with others, and growing to appreciate the needs and desires in their lives as well. This growth out of the self-centeredness of my high school days into a greater empathy for those around me has been greatly facilitated by my interactions with others on Bryan Hill, and it is these same interactions which have laid the groundwork for what I trust will be a lifelong pattern of seeking to always be sensitive to the needs of those I meet.

A second aspect of my learning experience at Bryan has been in the study of the Word of God. As II Timothy 2:15 states, "Study to show thyself approved unto God, a workman that needeth not to be ashamed, rightly dividing the Word of truth." This truth, and the discipline that it demands, is one area of my life that I can't emphasize enough. As I face the trials and temptations of daily living I become ever more aware of the tremendous importance of a daily time of studying. Indeed, it is only as I consistently draw from the teachings of God and allow the truths learned to affect my life that I can truly grow in the grace that our Lord so richly provides.

The second major area of growth in my life while at Bryan has been in the area of fellowship. The friendships made and the lasting lessons learned from my times spent with people will truly make leaving Bryan a difficult thing to do. But so much greater than the sadness of parting with so many dear and close friends is the rejoicing in sharing, if only now for a brief time, in the love and fellowship provided by our common bond in Jesus Christ. It is these relationships with others on campus which have deeply touched my life in the past and present, and provide me with a sense of joyous expectation of the fellowship of all believers at the coming of our Lord and Savior.

Lastly, and most importantly, while at Bryan I have seen, if only vaguely, what it means to follow Christ, and it is the excitement of obeying Him that is the basis for my hope and confidence in the future. Of all the things I have learned from friends, faculty and staff members, and administrators during my student days on the Hill the most significant has been the all-important commitment to following Jesus Christ. I can safely say that herein is the true value of my time at Bryan, that I've learned that the only life worth living, no matter what occupation I'm in, is the life that is surrendered to and directed by the will of Jesus Christ in my life. Indeed, it is this same will that I seek even as I pursue future study in the field of clinical psychology.

What, then, has Bryan College meant to me? It has meant lessons learned, friendships made, victories and defeats; but most importantly, it has meant the realization of a lifetime commitment to serving Jesus Christ.

David Drake, a psychology major from Hamilton, Ohio, who graduated summa cum laude, has been a leader in his class throughout his college career. He was vice president of his sophomore class and president in his junior and senior years. He served on the student senate for two years and was a member of the concert choir and madrigals for two years. He represented his class as a speaker at the commencement service on May 7.

ALUMNI GLEANINGS

Ed, Joyce, John, Clara

EDWARD '39 and JOYCE (HIRSCHY) '40 deROSSET, while visiting their daughter KARIN deROSSET '64 at Bryan, had their first visit in nine years with Ed's brother JOHN x'37 and his wife, Clara deROSSET. Both couples serve under Baptist Mid-Missions—Ed and Joyce in Trujillo, Peru, and John and Clara in Central African Empire. Ed and Joyce have returned to Peru and John and Clara are living in Greenville, S.C.

EUGENE '44 and ERNESTINE (HEALAN) '44 ROSENAU are on an extended furlough in Greenville, S.C., from Central African Empire. They are working together with the deRossets, their co-workers from the same African field, to produce a dictionary in the Sango language by the end of the year.

ANGIE GARBER '47 was honored recently in a celebration by her Navajo friends who had attended the Brethren Navajo Mission School. She was recognized for over 26 years of service as a dedicated person who had been cook, mother, friend, and advisor to Navajos. In the community of Counselor, New Mexico, she has been known as a very good teacher and Scripture reader in the Navajo language, and one who is kind, gentle, friendly, and always has a smile for everyone. Angie recalls the evening as one when she exchanged her own flowered dress for the rich satin and velvet Navajo costume complete with silver and turquoise jewelry provided by her friends to become one of their own.

ADAM RAGER '47 has had several months of severe testings and trials in convulsions and comas many times. His faithful wife, Georgenia, reports that his illness has lasted eight years, with five of these being in a convalescent care home in North Carolina. She writes, "These have been L-O-N-G and lonely; but for the grace of the Lord I would have been unable to bear. Isn't our Lord wonderful? . . . In your praying remember Adam—all we desire is the Lord's will to be done for His glory and praise."

PAUL x'50 and ELAINE (KENNARD) '47 SYERS returned to Camocim, Ceara, Brazil, on February 1, following their furlough spent mostly in St. Louis, Mo. They serve under Brazil Gospel Fellowship.

ED '48 and JANE (SUTTON) '49 LIEB, who live in Fortaleza, Ceara, Brazil, along with PAUL and ELAINE SYERS were recently honored by their mission with the gift of a diamond chip pin in recognition of their 25 years of missionary service in Brazil.

DONNA (BECHTEL) GAMBLE x'48 lives with her husband, Darwin, in Howard, Ohio. Donna is supervisor of the statement department at the First Knox National Bank of Mt. Vernon, Ohio, where she has seven girls working under her and most of them are Christians.

Dr. CHARLES TABER '51 has accepted the invitation to become Professor of World Missions at Emmanuel School of Religion, a seminary in Johnson City, Tenn., serving the Christian churches who demonstrate an evangelical commitment to Jesus Christ, to the Gospel, and to the Scriptures, and an insistence on the unity of the Church. CHARLES and his wife, BETTY (HANNA) '51 have been in Johnson City for the past six years while Charles has been teaching at Milligan College and Betty has been teaching mentally retarded children.

MARY CATHERINE DOSS '53 of Indianapolis, Ind., is teaching second and third grades in a Baptist Academy. Her daughter, Cathy, is a senior who has the highest grade average in her school. She also plays piano, organ, flute and piccolo, and hopes to major in music when she goes to college next fall.

MAX '54 and JEAN (McKEE) '55 DUNLAP with four of their eight children visited at Bryan in April on their return from spending the winter in Arcadia, Fla. Max did some carpenter and general maintenance work in the apartment complex where they lived. The family returned to their farm in Liberty, Kentucky, to renew their gardening and to continue their ministry of sharing with other families or individuals.

DALE '54 and MARTHA (SHEFFIELD) '55 PAYNE are on furlough in Englewood, Colo. The church they had helped to establish in Brazil has begun a branch Bible institute under the direction of the national pastor in Sao Paulo with fourteen students enrolled last semester.

LEONA BAIR '54 left the States on January 23 after a short furlough and has returned to the Meo people and church in North Thailand.

SANDY CUE '55 and her partner at Palimi U in Brazil received a special present on Christmas Day when a little Maita Indian girl was brought to them after her mother died. She was one and one-half years old and weighed just 9 pounds. Within a month she had gained weight to 13 pounds and was beginning to walk with help. Sandy doesn't know how long they will be able to keep this child but are glad for the opportunity to help her and to teach her about the Lord Jesus. Nearly half of the village population of 100 attends the Sunday service now. People are beginning to talk about God and to pray to Him as well as to memorize verses from the Bible.

MARLEEN BECK '56 is on furlough from the Ocana Bible Institute in Colombia under TEAM. She is making her home with family members in Danville, Iowa, and traveling to interested churches. She plans to attend the annual TEAM conference in Pennsylvania on May 15-20 and return to Colombia by June 15. She is grateful to have the re-entry permit stamp in her passport for Brazil.

RALPH HAYES '59, principal of the elementary division of Heritage Christian School in Indianapolis, Ind., reports about two other Bryan alumni on their staff—CATHERINE (MOORE) '67 SMITH, high school Spanish teacher, and LARRY NICKS '77, sixth grade teacher and a high school varsity coach. Three Heritage graduates enrolled at Bryan as freshmen last fall—Ken Andrick, Kathy Day, and Mike Lockwood (one semester).

JAMES ROEDER '62, of Largo, Fla., is coordinator of consultation and education for Comprehensive Mental Health Services of Pinellas County, Fla. He has served nine years as public school psychologist—four years at Clearwater as psychologist and three years with the mental health center.

WAYNE KISER x'62 received the 1977-78 Wayne E. Christianson Award of Excellence given by Moody Monthly Magazine for his October 1977 article, "Trouble at Missionary Gap," which defines the problem missionaries face when making deputation presentations. Wayne and Ruth Ann live in Glen Ellyn, Ill., where together they operate Graphic and Editorial Services, an organization which prepares promotional material for Christian organizations. They recently started working with three publications—SPECTRUM for Wheaton College, CB for Conservative Baptist Association of America, and MOODY ALUMNI NEWS for Moody Bible Institute. Their son Dan is a music major at Southern Illinois University, Deb is a senior in high school, and Tim an 8th grader.
